FitzRoy in Gravesend – Pelham Road, Supported Living

Join this welcoming, happy home. It is very close to amenities and the town centre, and has a large garden. The people who live there enjoy going out and about with ease.

"It's like being on holiday."

John

"I like being able to do what I want and have my room the way I want it."

Trevor

FitzRoy is a national charity that transforms the lives of people with disabilities, helping them to live more independently, at home and in the community. We listen to people, helping them make their own choices, as we believe disabilities shouldn't hold you back from doing the things you want to do.
