FitzRoy in Rayleigh, Essex

FitzRoy Rayleigh - Timber Grove, Registered Care

Set within two acres, the large main house is open plan with extra rooms for activities or a bit of peace and quiet.

We are particularly proud of our sensory room and adapted bathrooms. In addition there is a flat designed for people with behavioural support needs which enjoys its own separate garden.

We believe in quality of life.

Continuing the vision of our founders,
we make sure that everyone has a chance of enjoying the best life possible.

Support tailored to your needs

- Welcoming accessible homes adapted to your needs.
- Special diets catered for.
- Round the clock care with help to access local healthcare.
- Help to prepare and cook your own wholesome nutritious food.
- Comfortable rooms that you can decorate and make your own.
- Support to make friends and become part of the local community and access local amenities such as the pub, church, cinema and shops.
- Support to go on holiday.

"I love working with the residents, helping them improve their skills and taking them out."

FitzRoy is a national charity that transforms the lives of people with disabilities, helping them to live more independently, at home and in the community. We listen to people, helping them make their own choices, as we believe disabilities shouldn't hold you back from doing the things you want to do.
